

Byron and the Regency: An International Conference

Bath Royal Literary and Scientific Institution
Thursday 3 - Friday 4 December 2015

Conference Information

The Venue

The Conference is held in the Elwyn Room of the Bath Royal Literary and Scientific Institution (16-18 Queen Square, Bath, BA1 2HN).

For information on its location and how to get there, please consult the BRLSI website: <http://www.brlsi.org/about-us/contact-us>

Attendance Fees

There will no fee for speakers and chairs. Others attending will be charged a fee of £4 (£2 for members/students) per morning / afternoon panel session (to be collected upon arrival).

Coffee Breaks

Coffee and tea will be available at the Conference venue, at no charge to speakers and chairs, but at a modest charge for others attending. (For those who may want to wander further afield, there is the award-winning 'Colonna and Small's Speciality Coffee' shop just round the corner from BRLSI at 6 Chapel Row).

Lunches

These will not be provided as part of the Conference. Speakers and others attending will be able to avail themselves of Bath city centre's ample offer of restaurants and coffee bars – all within easy walking distance – including The Firehouse Rotisserie (<http://www.firehouserotisserie.co.uk/>), Le Bistrot Pierre (<http://lebistrotpierre.co.uk/locations/bath/>), The Stable (<http://stablepizza.com/locations/the-stable-bath/>), Hall & Woodhouse (<http://hall-woodhousebath.co.uk/>), and Bistro La Barrique (<http://www.bistrolabarrique.co.uk/>) as well as more traditional chains.

Hotels

Speakers and others attending who are in need of overnight accommodation are advised to consult <http://visitbath.co.uk/accommodation>, which lists the range of offers available.

Please be aware that, on the conference dates, Bath Christmas Market will be taking place, so there may be pressure on accommodation.
